

Galeria Millennium's new tenants and new development strategy

Wednesday, 29 June, 2011

Since April six new companies have signed agreements for the rent of total 430 sq.m. of premises in Millennium Plaza's retail gallery.

Galeria Millennium's new development strategy assumes adjusting the profile of its tenants to the needs of institutions renting offices in the building.

Thanks to ground floor lobby's refreshment its standard is increased and new space is made available.
