

Groupon and United Oilfield Services rent offices in Millennium Plaza

Monday, 10 October, 2011

Atlas Estates has signed six new contracts for space rental in its Millennium Plaza office building. Groupon, the leader in the segment of group purchasing via internet, and United Oilfield Services, a company operating in oil and shale gas extraction sector, have joined the ranks of building's tenants. Additionally, Golden Floor as well as Federal Express Poland companies have expanded the space they rent. Mexican restaurant Dos Tacos and Multimedia Impact clinic have in turn have rented retail space in Galeria Millennium at the lower levels of the building. The total newly let space under these contracts equals almost 4.700 sq.m.
